

Trauma Intervention Programs, Inc. (TIP)

Your Community Needs You!

TIP is looking for caring people willing to be part of a team of citizen volunteers trained to provide emotional and practical support to the victims of traumatic events. No experience necessary. These modern day Good Samaritans will be called to emergency scenes by emergency personnel to:

- Comfort families after the death or sudden illness of a loved one.
- Support family members after the suicide of a loved one.
- Help emotionally traumatized victims of accidents or fire.
- Help those emotionally shaken by any crisis event
